

ONBOARD CREW MANAGEMENT

JOB TITLE/RANK	Able Seaman/Ordinary Seaman
DEPARTMENT	Deck
RESPONSIBLE TO	Bosun- Deck Foreman / Designated Supervising Officer

It is recognized that certain nationalities of crews are accustomed to different duties compared to other nationalities (For example officers responsible for the maintenance of safety and lifesaving equipment). Accordingly, the Master has the authority to change the tasks as he sees fit in agreement with the Ship Management Office.

In addition, the Master has the authority to allocate any reasonable task or duties that may be required for the safe and efficient operation of the ship.

MAIN PURPOSE OF THE JOB:

Performing sea and port watch duties as instructed (subject to OS being duly certified)

KEY TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Able Seaman/Ordinary Seaman is responsible to the Bosun/Supervising Officer for:

- Performing lookout/helmsman duties on bridge watches
- Carrying out maintenance work and other operational tasks as required
- Assisting in mooring operations as required
- Adopting safe working practices
- Performing Safety & Security rounds as instructed by the Bosun/Supervising Officer
- Responsible to the Deck Officers for maintaining a safe deck watch and ensuring the vessel remains securely moored.
- Assisting in cargo operations (inc. tank cleaning, sweeping) as required by the Chief Officer and or Officer on Watch
- Undertaking any other tasks, duties as instructed by the Bosun/supervising Officer

PERSONAL BEHAVIOURS & QUALITIES

The job requires:

- Good team working skills
- Ability to perform all tasks in an orderly way
- Comfortable following instructions and willing to ask for clarification if necessary